- IKG PTU organised Two days program on World environment day
- Awareness program in village Dhapai on first day, tree plantation drive in University on second Day

Our responsibility is of prime importance when we celebrate any specific day. It is successful only when we feel responsible for the same. It is our duty to about the same and always do our duty to save the environment. This was said by Vice Chancellor I.K.Gujral Punjab Technical University Prof. (Dr.) Sharma. He was addressing concluding remarks related to two day awareness program at the University premises. He said that this should not be the end but the beginning. He encouraged everyone to work collectively in this direction.

The special guest of the occasion was Environmentalist Prof. Adarsh Pal Vig from Guru Nanak Dev University and Mr. Ashwini Joshi, who is retired from De now working on Environment. After the concluding remarks, Vice Chancellor Prof Dr Sharma inaugurated plantation drive in University.

The first day of the program started from University's nearby village Dhapai. Under the guidance of Registrar Dr. S.S. Ahluwalia and joint registrar Dr. R.P.S were told about the hazards of plastic usage. They were given an oath that they will not use plastic in future. Joint Registrar Dr. Bedi also shared his bad experience the use of plastic. He motivated to villagers to avoid the use of plastic item, especially plastic carry bags.
