

Indicator 7.1.11 Institution celebrates / organizes national and international commemorative days, events and festivals 2024-25

The Institution fervently embraces the spirit of unity and diversity by actively participating in the celebration and organization of national and international commemorative days, events, and festivals throughout the year. With an unwavering commitment to fostering a sense of community and global understanding, the Institution orchestrates a diverse array of activities that reflect its dedication to cultural enrichment and social awareness.

On the national front, the Institution plays a pivotal role in commemorating significant milestones, historical events, and cultural festivities. Whether it's observing national holidays, paying tribute to renowned leaders, or celebrating the rich tapestry of the nation's heritage, the Institution ensures that these occasions are marked with enthusiasm, educational programs, and inclusive events that engage both the internal community and the broader public.

Through these endeavours, the Institution not only creates memorable experiences for its community but also fosters a culture of inclusivity, education, and respect for the multitude of perspectives that contribute to our shared human experience.
