IKGPTU STUDENTS JOINED GURUDEV SRI SRI RAVISHANKAR JI'S EVENT "NATIONAL INDUCTION PROGRAM 5.0"

Students of I.K. Gujral Punjab Technical University (IKG PTU) participated online in the "National Induction Program 5.0" conducted by Spiritual Guru Sri Sri Ravishankar Ji. This program was organized across the country on Thursday, 22 August 2024. In the command of Dean Academics Prof. (Dr.) Vikas Chawla, students joined the event with full enthusiasm. The program was organized under the leadership of University Vice Chancellor Prof. (Dr.) Susheel Mittal. Registrar Dr. S.K. Misra considered this event very special for the students of the new session.

It is worth mentioning that the Policy and Academic Planning Bureau of All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) had sent invitations to all the prestigious academic institutions of the country to join this program. It was mentioned that at the start of a new academic year, a new group of students have joined the institute for the first year. It was important to conduct an online session to support and guide them as they move forward in this transformative phase of their lives. For the last four academic years, students have been guided by Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankar Ji through a live session as part of the induction program. Gurudev's profound insights and wisdom have played a vital role in helping students from diverse backgrounds adjust to the new academic environment and adopt the ethos of the institute. Students from all departments of the University main campus as well as other campuses were connected to it.

13/03/2025 12:05 pm all-news-events, Youth Affairs PtU_Admin Comments

Life Coach Dr. E. V. Swaminathan guided students about the main causes of stress in personal life and its physical and mental effects during course study Jalandhar/Kapurthala A seminar on the topic of “Stress Management while Studying” was organized at I.K. Gujral Punjab Technical University (IKG PTU) main campus. This event was organized in collaboration with Prajapita Brahma Kumaris Kapurthala. Renowned speaker Dr. E. V. Swaminathan participated as the main speaker. The Vice-Chancellor of the university, Prof. (Dr.) Susheel Mittal, participated in this program as Chief Guest held at the university main campus. Dean Academics Prof. (Dr.) Vikas Chawla led the program. This initiative was jointly taken by the Academic Department of the University and the Student Welfare Department. Upon reaching the university, the main speaker Dr. E. V. Swaminathan and his team were welcomed by Dean Academic Prof (Dr) Vikas Chawla and faculty members. Dean Academic Dr. Chawla introduced the guests to the university and shared a welcome message. University Registrar Dr. S.K. Misra congratulated the event organizing team through his message. Subject expert Dr. Swaminathan said that stress is a common problem that students feel during their studies. It can also be due to difficulties, pressure or anxiety about the future. Dr. Swaminathan said that in today's rapidly changing era, the stress of study is increasing on students. Due to the increasing influence of exams, homework and modern technology, stress has become a big problem among students. Stress not only hinders studies but also has a serious impact on psychological and physical well-being.

Students should make a planned study schedule and maintain a balance of rest and entertainment along with studies. He advised to keep the mind calm by doing yoga and meditation for 10 to 15 minutes daily. He said that this reduces stress. Dr. Swaminathan gave many examples through a PPT and informed the students about how to stay stress-free.

On the occasion of the program, the Vice-Chancellor of the university, Prof. (Dr.) Susheel Mittal said that stress is a common challenge, but it can be managed with the right approach and self-control. Students need to plan their studies, study in the timetable and move forward with confidence. Students should prepare a clear outline for their studies, which can save them from excessive stress. By making a long-term plan, there will be no stress before the exams. He motivated the university staff to continuously conduct such awareness-raising seminars. He said that this increases the morale of the students and inspires them to stay away from social vices.

At the end of the program, subject expert Dr. Swaminathan told the students about focusing on the positive side through meditation. University officials, faculty, staff and students participated in the program.
