14.12	Academic audit – percentage of attendance in scheduled lectures of 60 minutes each and not based on lectures held.	Registrar informed the members that data of students attendance asked from the colleges was not complete in respect of some institutes. Analysis of the data showed that attendance eligibility criteria used was based on the number of lectures held and a few colleges had not forwarded the required information. As per the regulations attendance in each subject must be minimum 75% of the lectures scheduled. Further these lectures are supposed to be of 60 minutes duration. Hence students who do not attain the prescribed attendance level in terms of 75% of the scheduled lectures are required to be detained. He further informed the council of its own decision wherein minimum number of lectures conducted in a subject is 10 N (where N is number of lecture hours scheduled per week) (the same applies to tutorials and practical labs. also). The Chairman

Amendment 4(Approved in 14th Academic Council Meeting)

Amendment 5(Approved in 26th Academic Council Meeting)

26.3	To brief on the decisions taken on the 23rd meeting of the BOG	The Board of Governors, PTU in its 23rd meeting deliberated the proceedings and recommendations of the Academic Council. The following were taken by the BOG : (A) Amendment to Academic Regulations 2001 / 2004 The Board approved the recommendations of the Academic Council on modifications to the Academic Regulations – 2004 pertaining to examination and attendance. The recommendations of the Council were also made applicable to the students governed by Academic Council Regulations – 2001. Further the BOG implemented the changes prospectively and not with retrospective effect. Consequently Academic Regulations – 2004 Para 6.1 and 6.2 stand repealed and replaced by the following : 6.1 Examination : any bonafide student, subject to provisions of regulation 3.2 and 6.2, who appears for the examination conducted by the University, shall be promoted to the next higher semester and shall carry forward, all course(s) in which he / she is declared fail. The student shall have to pass all papers within the stipulated maximum duration to qualify for the award of University degree. The same shall be applicable, mutatis mutandis to students governed by Academic Regulations 2001 in super session of relevant provisions therein. 6.2 Attendance (a) Student detained, due to shortage of attendance, in any subject, shall have to repeat the course and then only appear in the concerned subject, wherever it is offered as a regular course. However, if a student is short in attendance in all the course offered during a semester, he / she shall be required to repeat the semester, alongwith the next batch of students. (b) A student absent consecutively, without any notice or intimation, in writing to the concerned Principal / Director, for more than 45 days consecutively in a semester shall be deemed to have withdrawn from the course and his / her enrolment shall stand cancelled. Save the amendments proposed therein above, all other provisions of Academic Regulations 2004 / 2001 shall remain unchanged.
-------------	---	--

The above shall be applicable, mutatis mutandis, to students governed by Academic Regulations 2001 in super session of relevant provisions therein.

The above shall be applicable, mutatis mutandis, to students governed by Academic Regulations 2001 in super session of relevant provisions therein. The modified Academic Regulations – 2004 as applicable to Engineering are placed at Appendix –C. These shall be mutatis mutandis, applied to all undergraduate and MBA / M.Sc./ MBA course.

The members of the Academic Council are informed accordingly. Any clarifications of ambiguity must be brought to the notice of the University in writing within 90 days of implementation of these provisions. The University alone shall be the competent authority to issue any clarifications to remove any doubts or hardship to any individuals or group of students enrolled in the University.

(B) Examination in the latest syllabus

The Board did not approve conduct of examination as per the latest revised curriculum in respect of students who had failed to clear the subject. The Board referred the case to the Academic Council with the following recommendations :

- (a) To study the pattern being followed by the other Universities particularly technical universities for similar courses.
- (b) To set multiple copies of papers for each set of syllabus and to use these question papers as question paper bank.

(C) Amendment to Chapter XVI of the regulations relating to use of unfair means in or in relation to examination.

The Board approved the amendment as proposed. It was decided that the amendment must be given a wide publicity and cautionary notice must be displayed at appropriate places in the institute / exam hall. The amendment approved is as appended below :

10 (z) (i) Carriage of mobile or other means of electronics communication inside the examination hall (even in off condition) :

(ii) Communicating or typing to communicate, by any means whatsoever, through electronic media or otherwise with any other person in a manner that it indicative of help being sought / given in an examination”.
