CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER
HON'BLE MRS.JUSTICE LISA GILL

has to be seen who exactly is a "third person or an aggrieved person."

In A.Subhash Babu v. State of A.P. AIR 2011 SC 3031 it was held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court as below :

"The expression 'aggrieved person' denotes an elastic and an elusive concept. It cannot be confined within the bounds of a rigid, exact and comprehensive definition. Its scope and meaning depends on diverse, variable factors such as the content and intent of the statute of which contravention is alleged, the specific circumstances of the case, the nature and extent of complainant's interest and the nature and the extent of the prejudice or injury suffered by the complainant."

In Ayaaubkhan Noorkhan Pathan's case (supra) the Hon'ble Supreme Court has cautioned the courts against interpreting public interest litigation filed by unscrupulous persons who are as such meddlers who do not hesitate to abuse the process of court. We notice that the writ petition has been preferred by the employees with a grievance directed not only against capital outflow or mismanagement of funds but it also bring to the notice of this court Section 20 of the 2014 Act which enables capital outflow to adversely affect the corpus of the university. One of the purposes specified in the corpus is 'to provide financial support to the employees and for development of the university.' Under the heading modes of utilisation one of the objectives specified is "to provide financial assistance to the employees and for welfare activities of the employees of the PTU.'

Consequently, the employees who possibly may adversely be affected on account of the capital outflow permitted by the 2014 Act cannot be termed to be entire strangers to the petitioners to deprive them of the locus more particularly in an age when the rights of the individuals have been amplified under the right to information Act to seek information and pray for interference if their rights are being affected prejudiciously in any manner and it is not necessary for them to essentially wait for the axe to fall to approach the courts for redressal of their grievance.

Similarly, we feel that the students would also have a legitimate right to choose an institution and its affiliate university as these have a direct bearing on the quality of education and their career prospectus in life.

It would be a different matter if a particular university is assigned to a student upon competing in open merits but if a particular university has been assigned on his choice then he cannot be deprived of his legitimate desire to earn a degree from such a university or an institution to be compulsorily forced into accepting a degree from an institution not of his choosing. Similar reasoning of freedom to choose as observed in earlier paragraph would apply to the students as well.

Therefore, we conclude that Section 5(2) violates Article 19(1)(c) of the Constitution of India while Section 20 is violative of the provisions of the 1996 Act itself besides impinging upon the financial autonomy of the PTU. We, therefore, allow these two writ petitions whereas in the case of students we hold that the official respondents shall assess as to whether the students who are assigned to the PTU after participation in open competition and if that be so they be given an option as to whether they would like to earn their degree from the PTU or a subsequent university. Disposed of.
