2. Code of Handbook for Students

Regarding preparation of "Code of Handbook for Students" as per NAAC key indicator 7.1.12, the committee proposed the following rights, responsibilities, and rules governing student conduct at IKGPTU.

2.1 Academic Misconduct

Academic misconduct is defined as a violation of the Campus standards of academic integrity whether these violations are intentional. Academic misconduct consists of cheating on an exam, plagiarism on an academic assignment, or unauthorized collaborative work.

Evidence of academic misconduct may include, but is not limited to, following:

- Some of the student's work coincides with or closely paraphrases a source that is not properly acknowledged.
- Glaring coincidences in the work of students on exams, papers, problem sets, etc., where cooperation in producing the work was not permitted.
- Submission of the same work in more than one course. When submitting any work to an instructor for a course it is assumed that the work was produced specifically for that course. Submission of the same work in more than one course without prior approval is prohibited.

Alcohol and Other Drugs:

The unlawful possession, use, purchase, or distribution of alcohol on Campus property or as part of any College activity is prohibited. The unlawful possession, use, purchase, or distribution of illicit drugs, controlled substances (including stimulants, depressants, narcotics, or hallucinogenic drugs), or paraphernalia—or the misuse of prescription drugs, including sharing, procuring, buying or using in a manner different from the prescribed use, or by someone other than the person for whom it was prescribed—is prohibited on Campus property or as part of any Campus activity.

Assault, Endangerment, of Infliction of Physical Harm:

Physical restraint, assault, or any other act of violence or use of physical force against any member of the community, or any act that threatens the use of physical force is forbidden. Conduct—whether reckless or intentional—that a person knows, or which any reasonable person under the circumstances would know, places oneself or another at risk of bodily harm is subject to disciplinary action, whether or not the risk is realized, Student Welfare office will review the conduct and the circumstances in which it occurred and decide whether it falls under a minor or major adjudication, or to refer it to the College Judicial Committee for adjudication. The more reckless the conduct and the greater the risk of serious bodily harm and/or the greater the actual bodily harm caused, the likelihood of a severe sanction.

Bullying: Bullying includes any electronic, written, verbal, or physical act or a series of acts of physical, social, or emotional domination that is intended to cause or any reasonable person should know would cause physical or substantial emotional harm to another student or group of students. Bullying conduct may not only cause a negative effect on individuals targeted, but also others who observe the conduct. Bullying is prohibited, and participating in such acts will result in disciplinary action.

Intimidation: Intimidation is any verbal or electronic threats of violence or other threatening behavior directed toward another person or group that reasonably leads the person(s) in the group to fear for their physical well-being. Intimidation is prohibited and will result in disciplinary action.

Anyone who attempts to use bullying or intimidation to retaliate against someone who reports an incident, brings a complaint, or participates in an investigation in an attempt to influence the student conduct process will be in violation of retaliation and will be subject to disciplinary action.

Retaliation:

The University will not tolerate retaliation, Retaliation against any person or group who makes a complaint, cooperates with an investigation, or participates in a resolution process is a violation of College policy, Retaliation should be reported promptly to the Dean (Student Welfare) and may result in disciplinary action independent of any sanction or interim measures imposed in response to the underlying allegation of misconduct.

Smoking

Smoking and vaping is prohibited in all indoor spaces throughout the University Campus, including meeting rooms, lounges, offices, and residence halls (including individual's residential rooms). Violation(s) may result in a referral to student conduct, a fine, and /or other potential penalties, including exclusion from campus housing. Altering smoke detectors creates danger for all building occupants and may be met with disciplinary action.

Theft, Vandalism, or Property Damage

Theft, negligent, intentional or accidental damage to personal or University property is prohibited as is possession of stolen property; Restitution may be charged to the appropriate individual(s) and may warrant disciplinary action.

For damage that occurs during a student event in a space other than a residence hall and for which no individual student(s) accept(s) responsibility, the sponsoring students and/or organization may be held accountable for the money for replacement or repair of the damaged property and may be subject to further disciplinary action.

Unauthorized Entry or Access

Unauthorized entry into or presence within enclosed Campus buildings or areas, including athletic facilities, construction sites, and student rooms or offices, even when unlocked, is prohibited.

Weapons and Fireworks

No student may possess or use a firearm on University or its environs. Firearms, including rifles, shotguns, handguns, air guns, and gas-powered guns and all ammunition or hand-loading equipment and supplies for the same, are not allowed. No student may possess or use fireworks, dangerous devices, chemicals or explosives on University property or its environs. Items such as knives that could be viewed as weapons are forbidden.

Caste Discrimination

The University upholds the constitutional provisions of prohibition of discrimination on grounds of religion, race, cast, sex or place of birth. The University has adopted no tolerance policy against any such acts of cast discrimination in the University Campus. Any of student found indulged in such activity will call for initiation of disciplinary action by SC/ST Grievance Cell committee of the University.

Sexual Harassment

University is committed to establishing and maintaining a community rich in equality and free from all forms of discrimination and harassment. The University seeks to create an environment in which the greatest academic potential of students and professional potential of employees may be realized. In order to create and maintain such an environment, the University recognized that all who work and learn at the University Campus are responsible for ensuring that the community is free from discrimination based on sex or gender, including sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, and intimate-partner violence. These behaviors threaten our learning, living, and work environments and will not be tolerated.

Ragging

Ragging is a serious offence and is punishable as per the guidelines of UGC/AICTE. Students are directed to fill the anti-ragging undertaking at the time of admission.
