Subject: Regarding Academic Progression of Bachelor of Pharmacy (B.Pharmacy) Course Students, Batch 2019-20.

Dear Sir/Madam,

As per the recommendation of Board of Studies and approval of competent authority, it is hereby informed that, in view of the academic interest of the students and the prevailing COVID-19 pandemic situation, the following regulations have been implemented for Bachelor of Pharmacy (B.Pharmacy) Course students, Batch 2019-20.

1. As a one-time measure, the students may be permitted to sit in the V-semester examination (Exam Session January 2022) irrespective of meeting the academic progression condition subject to:
 - Submission of an undertaking by the students and colleges regarding availing only chance for examination session January 2022. Further, the undertaking will be given by the student that he/she will be promoted to semester VII only if his/her semesters I, II, III & IV are all clear and there is no backlogs. It was further decided that all the affidavits/undertakings of the students and the college should be submitted by the respective colleges to the office of Dean Academics latest by 21-01-2022 (Friday).
2. The examination department will conduct special examination for students who were debarred from appearing the examination due to academic progression regulation issued by Pharmacy Council of India.
3. The colleges which abided by the progression rule and did not upgrade the students to V-semester may be allowed to upgrade such students if they fulfil the minimum attendance requirement and have appeared for the internal exams. A special exam for such students will also be conducted by the examination department of IKGPTU.
4. The college Director/Principal will give undertaking/ affidavit on the letter head of the college (copy attached as Annexure-A) that:-
 - This is only the last opportunity at the request of students and college/Institute. In future, no communication will be considered regarding the above.
