Subject: Workshop on Science Journalism through Electronic, Print & Social Media

Dear Dr. Mishra,

Pushpa Gujral Science City is organizing one-day Workshop on Science Journalism through Electronic, Print & Social Media on August 24, 2024. This program is particularly useful for Public Relation Officers and Mass Communication students. Dr. Manoj Patairiya, Former Head, NCSTC, DST, GoI and Dr. Nancy Walia, Head of Department, Mass Communication, Punjabi University, Patiala have been invited as resource persons for the said workshop.

I would appreciate if you kindly advise the PROs and Mass Communication students of all affiliated colleges of the IKGPTU to attend the said workshop as it will be quite beneficial to them.

The registration fee for the said workshop is Rs.200/- per participant. Additionally, a radio feature competition on "India's Achievements in Space" is being organized. Detailed information about the said event is enclosed herewith:

I would be grateful if you could direct the concerned Department to upload information about this workshop on IKGPTU website to ensure it receives wide publicity.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Dr. Rajesh Grover)
