

IKG Punjab Technical University in Collaboration with the Information Security Education and Awareness Phase III Project

Offers

6-8 Week Paid Internship Program
Special Focus on Mobile Forensics

About the Internship: Inder Kumar Gujral Punjab Technical University (IKGPTU), in collaboration with the Information Security Education and Awareness (ISEA) Phase III Project, is excited to launch 6-8 weeks paid internship program specifically focused on Mobile Forensics. This program offers students an exclusive opportunity to delve deep into the essential aspects of digital forensics, specializing in mobile device investigations.

Key Program Details:

- Duration: 6-8 Weeks
- Stipend: Paid , @ Rs. 20,000 per student (i.e. Rs. 10,000/- per month for 2 months)
- Location: IKG Punjab Technical University, Kapurthala
- Eligibility: Students undergoing B.Tech and recent graduates in B.Tech Computer Science and Engineering , IT, Cybersecurity, or related fields
- Application Deadline: 30/12/2024

What You Will Learn:

- Fundamentals and advanced concepts of mobile forensics
- Tools and techniques for data extraction and analysis from mobile devices
- Best practices for ensuring data integrity and handling evidence
- Hands-on experience with industry-standard mobile forensics tools

Skills required:

- Basic knowledge of cybersecurity, networking, and IT systems
- Familiarity with mobile operating systems (iOS, Android, etc.)

How to Apply: Submit your application at before the deadline at hodcse@ptu.ac.in. Please include:

Your updated resume/CVA brief statement of purpose outlining your interest in Mobile Forensics and what you hope to achieve from the program